

UPS Air Freight

Gain control of your global supply chain.

Business opportunities are everywhere. So your heavy air freight (greater than 150 lbs/70 kgs) has to be ready for anything. Logistics can help get it where you need it on time and on budget. And keep your supply chain in sync.

Our comprehensive portfolio of global air freight services can make it easier than ever to ship freight worldwide. UPS® has options that can fit your time-in-transit needs for consistent and reliable delivery that allows you to balance speed with cost.

By leveraging our integrated network and technology solutions, you also can place shipment orders and track freight door-to-door from your desktop, helping to maximize efficiency and increase productivity.

UPS Air Freight can enable you to gain control of your global supply chain and be confident that your freight is where you need it, when you need it there.
